EVAN KOBLENTZ

Your domain name registration: LEGOrobotmuseum.com

Dear Evan Koblentz,

CSC Digital Brand Services represents LEGO Juris A/S, with its registered address at Koldingvej 2, 7190 Billund, Denmark, as well as other members of the LEGO Group of Companies (hereinafter referred to as "the LEGO Group").

It has come to the attention of the LEGO Group that you are the owner of the domain name LEGOrobotmuseum.com (hereinafter referred to as "the Domain Name"). As you may know, the LEGO® name is a registered trademark of the LEGO Group and is, as such, an important asset of the LEGO Group. Accordingly, the LEGO Group has to be extremely vigilant in protecting its intellectual property rights and in preventing unauthorized use of its trademarks in order to prevent confusion with or dilution of such rights. The dominant part of the Domain Name is identical to the LEGO trademark. The LEGO Group owns numerous trademark registrations for the LEGO trademark worldwide, including in the United States with registration number 1.018.875.

Unauthorized and unfair use of any trademarks belonging to the LEGO Group by any third party constitutes trademark infringement.

Whilst the LEGO Group is aware that the Domain Name is not currently in use, the LEGO Group would like to bring to your attention that it is carefully monitoring the use of the Domain Name and will not hesitate to take appropriate action against you, including, but not limited to, initiating Uniform Dispute Resolution Policy (UDRP) proceedings, should you start using the Domain Name or any trademarks belonging to the LEGO Group in any way which may infringe the LEGO Group's rights.

In paragraph 2 of the UDRP it is stated:

“By applying to register a domain name, or by asking us to maintain or renew a domain name registration, you hereby represent and warrant to us that (a) the statements that you made in your Registration Agreement are complete and accurate; (b) to your knowledge, the registration of the domain name will not infringe upon or otherwise violate the rights of any third party; (c) you are not registering the domain name for an unlawful purpose; and (d) you will not knowingly use the domain name in violation of any applicable laws or regulations. It is your responsibility to determine whether your domain name registration infringes or violates someone else's rights.”

The foregoing is without prejudice to the rights or remedies of the LEGO Group, all of which are expressly reserved.

Sincerely,
